The Ashmolean has been sharing stories since 1683.
Let us help you tell yours.

WHY THE ASHMOLEAN?

Located in the heart of Oxford, the Ashmolean is Britain’s first public museum. Our galleries offer a setting shaped by art, architecture and objects that span cultures and centuries.

Since our founding in 1683, we have been a place for people to come together, share ideas and discover new perspectives.

Our Corporate Membership programme offers businesses a range of ways to enjoy the Museum, from exhibition visits and guided tours to private events and entertaining.

By becoming a Corporate Member, your organisation also supports the Museum's work, helping us care for our collections and keep them accessible to everyone.
