FILMING & PHOTOGRAPHY

The Ashmolean has been sharing stories since 1683.
Let us help you tell yours.

WHY THE ASHMOLEAN

Located in the heart of Oxford, the Ashmolean is Britain’s first public museum. Our galleries offer a setting shaped by art, architecture and objects that span cultures and centuries.

Since our founding in 1683, we have been a gathering place for stories, ideas, and unforgettable experiences.

CAST GALLERY

The Ashmolean Cast Gallery is one of the oldest, largest and best-preserved collections of casts of Greek and Roman sculpture in the UK.
