The Ashmolean is the University of Oxford’s museum of art and archaeology, founded in 1683. Our world famous collections range from Egyptian mummies to contemporary art, telling human stories across cultures and across time.

Level -1 introduces our ‘Crossing Cultures’ theme. Through reading and writing, money and textiles, we show how civilisations developed as part of a connected world culture.

As you travel up through the Museum, our collections transport you through time, from the Ancient World to the present day.

On Level 3 the Sainsbury Special Exhibitions Galleries showcase a changing programme of major international exhibitions.

For a full list of galleries see the index opposite.

Please ask a member of staff if you need help at any time.
