- How people lived and what they believed
- What evidence they left behind

This workshop will be led by 2 experienced Ashmolean Education guides.

For the next few years the Greek galleries at the Ashmolean Museum will be closed as part of a massive re-development project. Some of the objects will be on display during this semi-closure but not enough to support a school visit so.... we are bringing the Greeks to you!

We offer a limited number of book-able sessions in school each year.
