Social Guide. An introduction to The Ashmolean Museum for schools groups coming for an Egypt Detectives session.

I am going to The Ashmolean Museum. Inside the Museum are objects and artworks from different places and times. The Museum is a very large building.
When I visit with my school I will enter through the St Giles entrance.
I will walk through some glass doors.
There is a friendly person on the left who is there to make sure everything is kept safe.
There are some doors down to the Learning Centre and also a lift.
I will go down the stairs past some toilets.
I can leave my things in the lunch room.
There are coat hooks and a tub for my bag and lunch.
I can use the stairs to go from the Lunch room and into the museum.
This is the Atrium. There are stairs to different floors in the Museum.
Or I can use the lift.
Around the Museum, there are people who will help me and show me the way. They also keep the art and objects safe.

If I have any questions about anything I can ask any of the adults who work in the Museum.
To get to the Egypt galleries I will walk towards the main entrance to the Museum.
I will walk through a gallery with lots of statues on display.
I will look closely at this Egyptian building with my class and a friendly teacher from the museum.
I will see some mummies and search the gallery full of interesting objects.

I can even touch some real Ancient Egyptian objects with a small group of my friends.
There is shop where I can buy things if my teacher can take us.
When I want to leave, I can go through doors to the Learning Centre to collect my things.
I can visit the Museum again if I want to.
