

OneWorld: Sing! 17-18 Nov 2018

A special FREE weekend of faith, folk, stories, and song celebrating the communities of Oxford.

SAT 17 th Programme Timings	Throughout Museum	Headley Lecture Theatre	Atrium	Exploring the Past Gallery 1	Cast Gallery 14	Sculpture Gallery 21	West meets East 35
12-1pm	12PM: Muslim Call to Prayer: Dhuhr - the noon prayer. (Please pause to listen to the call)		12.05 Welcome with Her Majesty's Lord- Lieutenant Tim Stevenson & Kanta Gopal 12.10 Aarti, an invocation (see Aarti sheet) 12.20 Pushpanjali, a dance to Lord Ganesha by Kala Arpan 12.30 TALK "The role of song, chanting & storytelling in Hinduism" by Oxford Centre for Hindu Studies (OCHS) 12.45 Bhajans by Oxford Hindu Temple and Community Centre Project	12-4pm: ACTIVITY: Henna and Rangoli Art (All ages)	12-12.30 STORY: Land God Story; casting Chinese oracles; 12.30-1.30pm Chinese Crafts- Temples, Oracles and Writing. (All ages)	12.15-12.40 ACTIVITY: Ghummar (Indian Folk) Dance workshop FREE, Book at the Welcome Desk	12-2PM: ACTIVITY: Make your own lantern and other Crafts with Francesca Shakespeare (All ages)
1-2pm			1.05 Story of Rama & Sita by Kala Arpan 1.25 Bollywood Dance Workshop by Jay Kumar & DanceAsia team		1.40-2.10 STORY: Hong Jing and the Monster legend; (All ages)	STORY: Ling Peng - Chinese storytelling and Music Rulers of the oceans, seas, rivers and storms, The Dragon Kings are wild and powerful. Join musician and storyteller Ling Peng as she takes you on a magical journey across China to meet these mythical creatures.	ACTIVITY: Make your own lantern and other Crafts (All ages)
2-3pm	2.30PM Muslim Call to Prayer: Asr - the afternoon prayer. (Please pause to listen to the call)	The Kist in Thyme A hilarious and multi- dimensional glimpse of Scottish Herbal Magic and Community Traditions with artist and herbal storyteller Amanda Edmiston of Botanica Fabula (All ages)	2.00 Drumming & Cultural Dances by Nepalese Community Oxfordshire 2.20 Krishna Stories Dance by Anashmita Saha 2.35 TALK "Hinduism - Shared Values" Oxford Centre for Hindu Studies (OCHS) 2.40 Kirtans by Oxford Centre for Hindu Studies (OCHS)		2.10 - 2.40pm : Chinese Crafts with Snowflake Books (in Gallery 13) (All ages)
3-4pm			3.00 Garba Dance by Hindu Garba group 3.10 Anashmita Saha & group dance Ghummar 3.20 Bollywood dancing with Jay Kumar & DanceAsia team		2.45 - 3.15 STORY: Moon Lady; 3.15 - 4.00 Chinese Crafts with Snowflake Books (in Gallery 13)

SUPPORTERS

We are enormously grateful to The High Sheriff's Community Integration Grant from the Oxford Community Foundation, The Oxford Foundation, the Oxford Council of Faiths, the Oxford Civic Society, The Oxford Mela and our other supporters for making this event possible.

OneWorld: Sing! 17-18 Nov 2018

A special FREE weekend of faith, folk, stories, and song celebrating the communities of Oxford.

SUN 18th Timings	Throughout Museum	Headley Lecture Theatre	Atrium	Cast Gallery (14)	Sculpture Gallery (21)	Mediterranean World (30)	West meets East (35)
12-1pm	12PM: Muslim Call to Prayer: Dhuhr - the noon prayer. (Please pause to listen to the call)	12-1.15PM: Panel Discussion: 'The Role of Songs in my tradition' Each faith representative will provide a 5 minute presentation on how faith animates their life. This will be followed by a 15-20 minutes Q&A. Panellists are: Penny Faust, Jewish Community Chinta Kallie, Hindu Community Davinder Singh, Sikh Community Imam Monawar Hussain MBE DL, Muslim Community Revd Charlotte Bannister-Parker, Christian Community Elizabeth Salisbury, Quaker Community Chair: Jawaid Malik JP, Oxford Council of Faiths Limited to 80 people.	12-12.45PM MUSIC: Persian Music with Delnavaz Delnavaz is a Farsi word that translates as 'Music from the Heart'. Delnavaz do this by playing a fusion of traditional and contemporary Persian songs underpinned by Hindustani rhythms. The two musicians are Delaram Izadi (tanboor and vocal) and Chris Hills, (tabla and vocal).	12 - 12.30 STORY: Cheeky Monkey; with Snowflake Books 12.30 -1.30pm Chinese craft activities with Snowflake Books (in Gallery 13) (All ages)	MUSIC: Bahai Music with Sam Cleary	11-1.30PM WORKSHOP Bookmaking-Names Of God Make a simple booklet with hand-stitched pages and a card cover. The cover and pages can be decorated in a unique collage style with papers chosen from the wide variety of images. Participants are encouraged to make a booklet suitable for meditation on The Names of God or Virtues. (Ages 12+ to Adult)	12-2pm ACTIVITY: Marvellous Mandalas. Create your own personal mandala (a circular symbol representing the universe) with Amanda Beck. (All ages)
1-2pm		1.45PM-2.30PM: DROP-IN Drumming Workshop West African Percussion with Andy Fowler (All ages)	MUSIC: Confluence Collective: Rumi Hour Confluence Collective is inspired by the musical traditions of Oxford's richly diverse communities. Its unique and constantly expanding repertoire blends music from Asia, Africa, Europe and Latin America.	1.40 -1.55 STORY: Lord Tiger with Snowflake Books 2.10 - 2.40pm Making Lord Tiger Mask & casting Chinese Oracle (in Gallery 13)			12-2pm ACTIVITY: Marvellous Mandalas. Create your own personal mandala (a circular symbol representing the universe). (All ages)
2-3pm	2.30PM Muslim Call to Prayer: Asr - the afternoon prayer. (Please pause to listen to the call)		MUSIC: Joined up Singing Community Choir Come and enjoy songs and rhythms from near and far, sung by a local choir with a global repertoire. The Headington-based harmony singers will give voice to folk tales and traditions ranging from England and Scotland to Appalachia, Ghana and Guinea. www.joinedupsinging.co.uk	DROP IN: Oxford Quakers Meeting. All are welcome to the Quakers meeting - we only ask that you are prepared to come and wait in the stillness with us	MUSIC : English Folklore Music with Charlie Powell	2-4PM: DROP-IN Workshop: Painting & Spirit Create your own inspirational text that has been penned in a calligraphic script chosen from spiritual traditions penned and printed on paper (Ages 12+ to Adult)
3-4pm		STORY: Serakh - from young seeker to wise seer. In a Biblical story monopolised by men, an old woman emerges to become a major figure in Jewish folk traditions. Serakh reappears in every generation to bring answers, insight and hope. Launched from the story of Joseph, the tale travels through the Exodus into the early Rabbinic period and beyond. With Storyteller Adele Moss.	PERFORMANCE: The Tariqa Burhaniya Dissuqia Shazulia With a talk regarding the role of the Tariqa in the individual integration into society and in the individual self-development.	3.05 -3.10 – 3.20 STORY: Five Flower Horse; 3.20 - 4.00: Chinese Crafts: Making rocking horse toy, Chinese writing & casting Chinese Oracle.

SUPPORTERS

We are enormously grateful to The High Sheriff's Community Integration Grant from the Oxford Community Foundation, The Oxford Foundation, the Oxford Council of Faiths, the Oxford Civic Society, The Oxford Mela and our other supporters for making this event possible.

